SCOPE OF THE JOURNAL

ADIT Journal of Engineering is published yearly. The information published in this Journal is designed to inform researchers, developers, managers, strategic planners, users and authors interested in state-of-the-art and state-of-the-practice activities in the engineering and technology. It is assumed that the ideas presented are important, have been well analyzed or empirically validated, and are of value to the engineering and technology community. Areas include, but not limited to : (a) Electronics and communication (b) Electrical Engineering (c) Computer Engineering (d) Information Technology (e) Mechanical Engineering (f) Automobile Engineering (g) Food Processing Technology (h) Civil Engineering.

CALL FOR PAPERS: SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Research papers are invited from researchers/ academicians for publication in ADIT Journal of Engineering. Submission must include all of the following: abstract, keywords, illustrations and bibliography. An abstract should be 100 to 200 words and should clearly state the nature and significance of the paper. Abstract must not include mathematical expressions or bibliographic references. References should appear in a separate bibliography at the end of the paper, with items referred to by numerals in square brackets. Figure and tables must be sized as they are to appear in print. Figures should be placed exactly where they appear within the text. We ask that authors embed the figures in order to provide a smoother review process for editors and reviewers.

SUBMISSION POLICIES AND COPYRIGHT INFORMATION

Papers are accepted for review with the understanding that the same work has been neither submitted nor published elsewhere. Concurrent submission to other publications and this Journal is viewed as a serious breach of ethics and, if detected, will result in immediate rejection of the submission. Papers previously published in conference proceedings, digests, preprints or records are eligible for consideration provided the editor-in-chief is informed at the time of submission and that they have undergone substantial revision.

The author is responsible for obtaining copyright releases and corporate and security clearances prior to submitting material for consideration. ADIT Journal assumes that clearances are granted when a paper is submitted.
